The O'Fucchs

ig @thefucchsband | orsonhells.bandcamp.com

SPECIES: folk punk, jazzy, indie rock, post-mold

CENTER OF OPERATIONS: Philadelphia, PA

ESTABLISHED: 2022

PARENT CELL: The O'Farrells

MEMBERS: JULES McCORRY, REGGIE O'FUCCH

JULES McCORRY - SEE VOL. 12

ALIAS: ORSON HELLS

WEAPON OF CHOICE: vocals

FORMER HIDEOUT: The Tabernacle

INSPIRATIONS: Amy Winehouse, Fleetwood Mac, Joni Mitchell

RADICALIZATION: had been running shows and decided they wanted to get in on the action; picked up ukulele for the first time since high school and started playing as Orson Hells

HABITS: photography, documenting memories, blogging, making a zine

MOTIVE: would go crazy without music; uses it as an emotional outlet

REGGIE O'FUCCH

WEAPONS OF CHOICE: guitar, vocals

AFFILIATED ACTS: The O'Farrells, Flying Fleet

INSPIRATIONS: everything from traditional Irish music to Dead Kennedys to Beyoncé

RADICALIZATION: got a bass at 15 and started playing. Has been in bands for most of his life.

COVER JOB: coordinator for kids with special needs at a school in North Philly

MOTIVE: has always loved music, music culture, and the music community

FORMATION: JULES and REGGIE first met at a Tabernacle show. After an ORSON HELLS show at The Grape Room, REGGIE mentioned that he was starting a band but needed a femme vocalist, and JULES inserted themselves into the band. Many others have played with them at various points.

SLEEPER AGENTS: 17

REVELATION: upon attending a family reunion, REGGIE found out that he and JULES are cousins by marriage

ACTION: REGGIE writes the songs, and he often feels like he is "receiving" them rather than creating them. Sometimes a song takes five minutes to finish, other times it takes several months. Lyrics are inspired by life events and self-reflection; he tries to make it vivid and paint a picture. They harness the power of multiple voices singing the same thing and save harmonies for special moments.

CONSEQUENCE: Two singles recorded with Corey from The Looms at his home studio are released on Spotify; several old demos are also available on the Orson Hells Bandcamp.

POLITICAL WING: The Tabernacle Community Outreach Program, collecting donations of useful goods (food, medication, gender care supplies, etc.) and providing them to Philadelphians who need them

DOGMA: uplifting each other, overthrowing the government, being real with yourself

MISSION: supporting the scene community, sharing other people's art, being great fans

RECENT WORKS: "Bad Time," "Sisyphus"

LIKELY NEXT MOVES: running The Tabernacle Community Outreach Program, recording more songs, tour in May

UPCOMING SHOWS: March 27th (Ortlieb's) & April 18th (The Delancey NYC), 2025

BOOKING: Instagram DMs; mostly take on full bills, first come first served, 2-3 shows per month

The living room

PLANTING: In the 90s, CASPER'S dad hosted shows on a farm in rural North Jersey. In 2020, CASPER went to a show at Domo's Barn and was inspired to start hosting shows too. RIP 2128 N Carlisle St. H Kρίση
KATABATIC EPITHET: looked up the Greek god of music and found the story of Orpheus and Euridice; wanted to avoid a venue name starting with "The"
GERMINATION: On September 23rd, 2022, CASPER and their friend, CHARLI, hosted the first Orpheus' Garden show in North Philly. 150 people showed up.
FLOWERING: CASPER moved to South Philly and continued hosting; in March of 2023, CASPER and BILLY met and started talking. BILLY came to his first Orpheus' Garden show in May of 2023 and started helping run the venue soon after.
DECOR: whimsical, maximalist, gothic; lots of plants, lights, and tchotchkes

The bar

MEMORABLE COMEDY: Had a band that played shirtless and said they were prohibited from washing. They stank up the basement so bad that people started leaving.

MEMORABLE NOVELTY: The guitarist from Kikagaku Moyo played a show that incorporated kabuki theater - a performer in kumadori makeup walked through the crowd around the basement during the set.

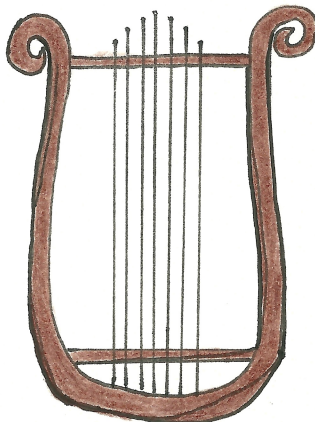

The art wall

MEMORABLE MISHAP: Sunfish Pond was playing at Orpheus' Garden for the first time, and on the way, BILLY totaled his car with all of the band's equipment in it. He and the bassist loaded the equipment into another car, drove there, and played the show covered in radiator fluid and fiberglass. RISK MITIGATION: swiftly expel personae non gratae MESSAGE FOR US: Never be scared to introduce yourself to them or to people in the scene generally, especially if they're running shows.
